Subject: BMI USA General Price Increase Notification - Effective July 10, 2026

Dear Valued Customer,

Effective April 6, 2026, the U.S. Government revised the application of Section 232 tariffs on products containing copper, steel, and aluminum. Previously, the tariff applied only to the value of the metal content within a product and did not include such costs as fabrication, manufacturing, or production. Under the new proclamation*, the 50% tariff is now assessed on the full invoice value of applicable items. In addition, the Middle East situation is also impacting our costs.

Despite our best efforts to mitigate these increases and minimize the impact on our customers, we find it necessary to implement a price adjustment for the following product categories.

Also, in all cases, BMI will not accept backorders at pre-increase prices. Backorders will be offered at the effective pricing at the time of release.

We remain committed to providing competitive pricing and reliable service. However, as market conditions continue to evolve, additional pricing adjustments may be necessary to reflect cost increases beyond our control.
